On Sunday, March 13, Holy Trinity celebrated Girl Scout Sunday.

Girl Scout Week is celebrated each March, and commemorates the day that Juliette Gordon founded the Girl Scouts, March 12, 1912.

The girls participated in the ministries of greeters, ushers and gift bearers.

The Rev. Ed Komath gave a blessing to the girls at the end of Mass. The girls then presented Kornath with a check for $1,500 to be applied toward the Parish Center for Holy Trinity.

To raise the money, the troop sold 2,000 boxes of cookies through individual sales and cookie booths sales that were held after Mass.

With 11 members, the troop's advisors are Michele OKrent and Amy Kumrow. The troop formed six years ago when the girls were in 5K.
